

COME BACK, LITTLE GIRL

Come back, little girl, won't you please come back to me?

So many people miss you so much, including me

Everybody's asking if I've seen you or had news

But I say, come back little girl, lift yourself out of yer blues...

It's not that I mind being left on my own

I tried to call you on your mobile phone

You didn't answer, and I know it's hard

To carry all that misery in your heart

But if you just - knew - I - called

You wouldn't feel - left out in the cold

I tried to reach - out - to - you

To let you know - I'm thinking of you

Come back, little girl, won't you please come back to me?

You vanished without a trace, so unexpectedly

I know your heart is filled with pain and sorrow

So please, come back, little girl, to a better tomorrow

Maybe you've fallen down a hole in the ground, no-one can hear you shout

Maybe you've gotten trapped in a cave, can't see the way out

Maybe you're in a cabin somewhere talking to a log

Maybe you feel so isolated, you feel lost in the fog

But if I just - knew - some - more

Like what you're doing - or where you are

But if you just - called - to - me

You know I'm here - I'll always be

Come back, little girl, won't you please come back to me?

It's like I'm throwing a message in a bottle to the sea

You think you're alone in the world, but that's not really true

So please, come back, little girl, because I love you...

I love you, yes, it's true, so won't you...

Come back, little girl, won't you please come back to me?

Come back, little girl, won't you come back to me? (repeat ad libitum)
