

NAME: _____

LEARN "MOE" ABOUT MOEBIUS SYNDROME

You might have a kid in your class or school with Moebius syndrome. They might look different or sound different than you. But, just like dalmatians who have unique spots, every person is different! Being different helps create diversity in our world. The world would be boring if every dalmatian looked the same. Learn more at moebius syndrome.org